

Developed for the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, Task Minder is a hybrid project management system designed to tackle common product lifecycle processes in a collaborative and secure environment

